

KETURAH OGLESBY, Group Facilitator

Keturah has been a part of the iCan family since the summer of 2021. Her compassionate spirit and energetic presence has been welcomed by all of our members here. Keturah is one of the group facilitators for RWC girls and iClub while working with MNE socials as well. She is a graduate of Winston-Salem State University with a BS in Healthcare Management and minors in Psychology and Public Health. In her free time, she enjoys traveling and spending time with friends and family. She was born in Winston-Salem, NC where she still currently resides. Keturah has worked with medical and neurodiverse children and teens for 8 years providing medical care, advocacy, and empathy, all while prioritizing the needs of the children she works with. She is a strong believer in meeting people where they are and exemplifies these characteristics when working with our members.
