

TAYLOR TORREZ, Admissions Specialist

Taylor received her Bachelors in Social Work from Winston-Salem State University in 2019. She is now pursuing her Masters in Social Work through Winthrop University and is expecting to graduate in December of 2023. Taylor was born with a form of Muscular Dystrophy and uses a wheelchair throughout her daily life. Taylor's own disability has given her insight into the disabled population and she has made it a goal to help others like herself. Taylor was a one-on-one for an individual who had Autism at a previous job and since then has found a true passion for working with those who are neurodiverse.
